Law Library staff are available to advise library users on which materials might be helpful, where those materials are, and how to use them to find information. For further help in solving a legal problem, you may want to call one or another community service below. Additionally, the telephone directory’s yellow pages contain a good guide to Eugene area attorneys, including types of cases undertaken (see ads after the names list). \textit{Caution: Only a licensed attorney can give legal advice.}

ASUO Conflict Resolution Services

- http://studentlife.uoregon.edu/SupportandEducation/ConflictResolutionServices/tabid/134/Default.aspx
- Oregon Hall, Rm. 164, University of Oregon
- Monday–Friday 8:00 am–5:00 pm

Mediation services for non-legal disputes. Requires at least one party to be a UO student.

ASUO Student Legal Services

- http://darkwing.uoregon.edu/~legal/
- Erb Memorial Union, Rm. 334, University of Oregon
- Monday–Friday 9:00 am–5:00 pm during school year
- Monday–Thursday 9:00 am–4:00 pm during summers

Assists fee-paying, currently registered UO students with legal issues such as landlord/tenant, consumer, contract, and criminal misdemeanors. Does not assist with tax, probate, for-profit, social services, or real estate issues. Does not represent one student against another.

Community Mediation Services, Inc.

- 59 E. 11th Ave., Suite 100
- Monday–Friday 9:00 am–5:00 pm

Provides mediation of issues relating to family, neighbor, and other relationships. Services provided on free or sliding-scale basis.

Lane County Circuit Court

- http://courts.oregon.gov/Lane/
- 125 E. 8th Ave., Second Floor
- Monday–Friday 8:00 am–5:00 pm

Provides forms/instructions packets for some civil actions such as small claims, name change, domestic violence restraining orders, dissolution, record expungement, garnishment, and forcible entry and unlawful detainer (FED). No legal advice given.

Lane County Law Library

- http://www.lanecounty.org/Departments/CC/LawLibrary/Pages/default.aspx
- 125 E. 8th Ave., Basement Floor
- Monday–Friday 8:00 am–5:00 pm

Provides Oregon, federal, and general legal research materials, including primary law and specialized practice materials. Photocopiers available. Open to the public. Trainings offered include Legal Research on the Internet, Federal Legislative History, and Westlaw; for schedule, go to website above and click on Law Library Training Calendar. Borrowing privileges may be restricted. No legal advice given.
Lane County Legal Aid and Advocacy Center, Senior Law Service, and Legal Aid Services of Oregon ..........541-485-1017
http://lclac.org
376 E. 11th Ave.
Monday–Friday 8:30 am–5:00 pm, intake from 1:00–3:00 pm, closed 11:45 am–12:45 pm

For low-income residents of Lane County, these services provide assistance with domestic relations, landlord/tenant, consumer affairs, and some miscellaneous legal matters. Also offer self-help classes on divorce and custody. The Legal Aid and Advocacy Center provides legal assistance with government benefits issues such as SSI, welfare, and food stamps. Civil matters only. For criminal, see Public Defender.

Oregon State Bar, Legal Information for the Public ........................................................................................................1-800-452-8260
www.osbar.org/public
16037 SW Upper Boones Ferry Road
Tigard, Oregon 97224
Monday–Friday 9:00 am–5:00 pm

The website offers a variety of resources, with general answers to many legal questions, in areas such as bankruptcy, consumer rights, courts (including small claims court), criminal law, employment, family law, real estate, taxes, tenants and landlords, traffic law, and wills. The Oregon State Bar’s Lawyer Referral Service (1-800-452-7636) provides names of attorneys for particular geographical areas. LRS clerks can help define legal problems and what type of assistance is needed. The Oregon State Bar also operates a “Modest Means” program.

Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group ........................................................................................................541-346-4377
www.ospirgstudents.org/renter
Erb Memorial Union, Ste. 1, University of Oregon
Call first!

Provides renters handbook for a small fee (available online free of charge, see website above). Other information available concerning various consumer, environmental, or “good government” issues.

Public Defender Services of Lane County ........................................................................................................541-484-2611
http://www.lanepds.org/
1143 Oak Street
Monday–Friday 8:00 am–5:00 pm, closed 12 noon–1:00 pm

Court-appointed attorneys for criminal matters only.

Small Claims, Lane County Circuit Court ........................................................................................................541-682-4020
http://www.oregon.gov/Lane/SmallClaims/SmallClaimsPage.page
125 E. 8th Ave., Second Floor
Monday–Friday 8:00 am–5:00 pm

Provides information on fees and court procedural requirements, including forms and instructions. No legal advice given.

This publication is available in accessible formats upon request to Law Library Reference, 346-1654.

AJ/AN 08-19-10