NAMES OF THE SOVEREIGNS OF THE
OLD COREAN STATES, AND CHRO-NOLOGICAL TABLE OF THE PRESENT DYNASTY.

COMPILED BY
LUDOVICO NOCENTINI

But little information is obtainable as to the names of the sovereigns of the legendary period and of the first Corean States, as the two 朝鮮, 三韓, and others.

As regards the first period, we are told only that the legendary 王儉, styled 檀君, reigned in Corea and had his seat of government at 平壤, afterwards at 白嶽山, the present 九月山. He ascended the throne B.C. 2331, and his State lasted 1,212 years.

The next period commences with 箕子, who also held his Government at the same capital (平壤). The Ci, or Kwi, dynasty lasted 929 years, during 43 sovereigns. But after 胥餘 or 須臾, the Viscount of Ci, or Kwi, who succeeded to the throne B.C. 1122, only the last two sovereigns are known, viz., 箕否 and his son 箕準, who lost his throne in B.C. 194. He afterwards changed his name to 新莽, founded the State of 馬韓, and transferred his capital to 金馬郡. Then 衛滿 usurped the throne and changed the name of the capital to 王儉城, and the state lasted for a further period of 87 years.

THE STATE OF 新羅 (other names 徐羅代, 斯羅, 斯盧).

The Capital was in the present 慶州, former territory of the State 辰韓. This State had 55 kings, and lasted 992 years.
