General Index of Vols. XIII, XIV, XV, XVI.

Volume XIII.

Editorial Comment
- Charles R. Crane as American Minister to China 1
- Marquis Okuma's Views on Anglo-Japanese Alliance 2
- Organization of the New Banking Consortium 3
- Mr. Kajiwara on the Banking Consortium 4
- Millard's Piece Goods Celebrates Fourth Year 5
- Chinese Boycott Things Chinese 6
- Observations 7

China's Total Foreign Trade
- China Interested in Motor Cars 8
- Early Relations With China 9
- Revival of American Trade in the Orient 10
- China's Total Foreign Trade 11
- Warren G. Harding Nominated for President 12
- Patriotism in the Field of Commerce 13
- Japanese Situation in Siberia as Summed up by Mr. Kajiwara on the New Republic 14
- China's Statement on New Republic 15
- China's Total Foreign Trade 16
- Observations 17

Four Steps Taken in Peking Enhance Prestige of Government
- Long Distance Telephone Connection Between Shanghai and Peking 20
- Anfu Club 21
- Shanghai to Have New Community Church 22
- General Chang Tso-lin 23
- Japanese Soldiers and Civilians Killed in Nicko-laiiev 24

Revision of Anglo-Japanese Alliance by Japan or Great Britain
- Chinese Piece Goods Dealers Suffering 30
- Chinese Students Sail For American Universities 31
- Fight Between Anfu and Chihli-Groups 32
- Large Amount of Opium Found on Canadian Boat 33
- Attitude of America Toward League of Nations 34
- Millard's New Book 35
- China's Close Relationship With America 36
- Formation of a New Cabinet at Peking 37
- Mr. Obata Sheltering Anfu Leaders 38
- Peking Cabinet announces Policy of Reconstruction 39
- China Needs Sound Representative Government 40
- New International Banking Consortium To Meet 41
- Representatives of German Government Arrive in Peking 42
- Observations 43

Volume XIII.

Special Articles
- Martin's Reply to Japan Concerning Shangtung—H. K. Tong 18
- Russian Soviet Would Befriend China—H. K. Tong 24
- A Bill to Assist the American Merchant Marine 48
- America's State in the Pacific—C. F. Weed 62
- Japan's Railway Program in China 64
- Possibilities in American Cotton Introduction in China—John B. Griffin 98
- American Chamber of Commerce of China 119
- American Shipping in the Pacific—Don D. Patterson 134
- American Enterprise and American Chambers of Commerce of North China—Upton Close 136
- The Present Political Situation in China—H. K. T. 144
- China Since the World War—C. F. Remer 147
- Federal Incorporation Act 199
- Japanese Circulate More Rumors About American Firms 202
- The Inter-Allied Watch Dog of the Chinese Eastern Railways—Hollington K. Tong 210
- Building China's Greater University—Upton Close 212
- The Trade of China for 1919 244
- The Increase of French Influence in China—H. K. T. 265
- John Dewey in China—C. F. Remer 266
- How Can America Best Help China?—Shen Tu-chung-han 268
- The Trade of China for 1919 272
- New Cotton Mill Opened at Chengchow—C. Charles 300
- China's Labor Problem Coming to the Fore—H. K. T. 324
- Anglo Japanese Alliance 324
- A Constructive Foreign Policy: China—Paul S. Reinsch 326
- Oriental Trade Expansion Dependent Upon Transportation 328
- Development of Asia—Paul Page Whitman 357
- Stabbing American Business in the Back!—George 369
- Wash.—A City of Prosperous Industries and No Soldiers 371
- The Business Depression in Japan—Grover Clark 380
- American Firms in China 407
- Politics by Military Bluff and the People—Upton Close 418
- New Chinese Legations Established Abroad—H. K. T. 419
- The Japanese Depression and Her Labor—Grover Clark 420
- Chinese Maritime Customs Procedure 445
- American Congressmen Welcome to China! 518
- The Island of Yap and the Cable Situation—F. A. Good 450
- China's Trade with United States in 1920 454
- Chinese-American Cooperation in the Development of Yunnan Mines—H. K. Tong 500
- Chong Tso-lin on the Present Chinese Situation—H. K. T. 519
Volume XIII.

Who's Who In China

Yang Yang-tai, Civil Governor of Kuangtung
Admiral Sah Chen-ping, Acting Prime Minister
Kuo-hsun-hung, President President
General Yin-Chang, Chief Military Aide-de-camp
Hon. Chang Cha, Industrial Leader at Nantungchow
Col. Chang-Chen, Chief of Police, Harbin
General Sun-Lieh-chen, New Military Governor of Heilungkung
General Pao Kuei-ching, Former Military Governor of Hupeh
Yang Shou-mai, Wusih
Hsu Yuan, Special Commissioner of Foreign Affairs

Volume XIII.

Who's Who In China

M.K. Chen, engineer-in-chief of Hulotao Port
Dr. S.T. Kong, American Trained Engineer
Rahming Tseung-yi, Director of Telegraph Administration
Admiral K.K. Lang, Commander-in-Chief of Chinese Navy
General Wu Pei-fu, Popular Military Man
General Ting Shih-yuan, Director of Peking Hankow Ryks
Lun Wan-shenung, Chief Engineer of Canton Municipality

Volume XIII.

Women's Work

Dr. Yamei Kin Returns to China
Co-education in China-Chang Yien Zieg
The American College Club of China
The Chinese Women Returned Students
The Y.W.C.A. in China
Foochow Health Campaign 1920
What is a Chinese "Sing-Song" Girl?
Chinese Girl of the United States
Chinese Woman Doctor Granted Honoraty Degree
Mrs. Y. J. Allen Celebrates Sixtieth Anniversary
A Party of Chinese Women Students to America
Dr. Mary Stone—China's First Woman Doctor

Volume XIII.

General Topics
C. S. Mandarin Launched in Shanghai
Memorial Day Observed in Shanghai
Shanghai Has American Legion Post
Minister Crane Guest of American Legion
American School Fund Begins Collection
American School Campaign
Rear Admiral Winterhalter Dies
Chinese Chamber of Commerce Denies Attempt to Take Election
Shanghai Constitutionalists Announce New Plan
Congress Passes 100 Percent American Merchant Marine Bill
High Cost of Rice Threatens Industrial Crisis in China
Annual Meeting of Chamber of Commerce
Exchange Slump Brings Cotton Piece Goods Crisis
"Over There" Finds New Popularity in Shanghai
American Chamber of Commerce Holds Annual Meeting
Summer Vacation Work for Chinese Students
China's Delegates Made Hit at Foreign Trade Meeting
The Future of Tsingtao
America's War Philanthropies
A New Japanese Minister to China
American School Campaign
Governor Cox the American Democratic Nominee
Foochow Health Campaign
Solving the Housing Problem in Shanghai
Reception Planned for Chinese Student Delegation to America
Entertaining U. S. Congressmen
"Made in America to be Used on Chinese Goods"
Edward Ezra, the Great American Publisher
Seventieth Anniversary of the North China Herald
Electric Lights for Hankow
Ocean Passenger Rates Go Up
Lamont Makes Statement Regarding Consortium

Books and Publications
Through the Skilful Year—From the writings of Ralph Waldo Trine
The Russian Pendulum by Arthur Ballard
The MacMillan Company
International Crop Report and International Statistics
Volume XIII.

Books and Publications

Page
Education for Textile Workers, advisory editor..... 202
The Educational Directory and Year Book of China, Shanghai: 1920..... 316
Kiangsi Native Trade and Taxation, by Stanley Wright. Shanghai: 1920..... 568
Wood and Wool Prices, a booklet on wool and wood manufacture..... 569
The Human Cost of the War, by Holmes. New York: Henry Holt and Brother, 1920..... 621
Germany Murray Justice, by Maurice Berger. New York: Putnam and Sons..... 621
China of the Chinese, by E. T. C. Werner. London, Sir Isaac Pitman and Sons, 1920..... 725

Volume XIV.

Editorial Comment

Reconstruction of Peking Government..... 1
Chow Ts'ui-chi, Head of Ministry of Finance..... 3
Financial Situation in China..... 3
Chinese Post Office Makes Steady Progress..... 3
The Chinese Student Question..... 53
Ich Kung cho, New Minister of Communications..... 54
China in Favor of Consortium..... 54
China's Attempt to Take Jurisdiction Over Russian Signs of Unrest in Outer Mongolia..... 214
New Chinese and American Engineer Journal..... 216
Japanese Land in California..... 273
Japanese-Pacific Conference, by A. M. Pooley, 274
Organization of a National Convention for China..... 275
Observations..... 275
Japanese—California Land Question..... 296
Racial Question in Japan..... 326
Chinese Laborers Not Welcome in Japan..... 327
General Yang I-te, Chief of the Chinese Police..... 327
America's Attempt to Build Up a Merchant Marine..... 328
American Red Cross Contributions to the War..... 329
Program of New International Consortium..... 385
Campaign Against Manufacture of Opium in States..... 387
Attack on Japanese Consulate at Hangchun..... 441
Mining Disaster at Tungshin Min... 442
Nantungchou, the Model City of China"..... 443
"Labor Troubles in Great Britain..... 501
Baron Y. Fujimura in Shanghai..... 502
Mandates Issued Concerning New National Assembly..... 503
First Session of League of Nations at Geneva..... 504
Japan Distributing Propaganda Against China..... 504

Volume XIV.

Editorial Comment

Warren G. Harding Elected President..... 565
Shun Ping, League of Nations..... 566
Senator Harding Has Personal Interest in China..... 566
Congressmen Meet Prominent Chinese..... 567
General Chang Tso-Ling Most Powerful Leader in North China..... 568
To Abolish Tuchun System in China..... 568
Chinese Stenographic System to be Taught Chinese Students at General Educational College at Any..... 625
Japanese in Mongolia..... 626
International Banking Consortium..... 683
"Little Hong Kong" Reopens..... 682
Marshal Tuan Chi-jui May Enter Political Arena Again..... 683
Reconstruction After War..... 684

Special Articles

Soviet Delegation Trying to Arrange Commercial Relations with China—Hollington K. Tong, Principal Source of China's Present Weakness—P. S. Reinsch..... 6
"Strengthening the Weakest Link,"—Frazier Hunt Dr. Tenney "Grand Old Man" Retires From American Mission—Hollington K. Tong, 57
Program for the Financial Reconstruction of China—D. K. Lien..... 60
The Peacetown Government of the Philippine Islands—Frazier Hunt..... 64
Between Marquis Okuma and Ourselves..... 114
Poor China—H. H. Powers..... 114
Reducing Silver Mining in Kwangtung—S. S. Beath..... 116
The Jones Bill and Shipping in the Pacific..... 117
"Few Filipinos Want America to Cut Loose From the Islands,"—Frazier Hunt..... 118
The Famine Situation in North China—H. K. T. Hayes..... 163
What is the Trouble in China With Earl Baker..... 167
Philippine Congress Needs Chinese Labor..... 167
The Uncrowned King of the Igorots—Frazier Hunt..... 168
The Shangting Strawlad Industry—Lester Maynard..... 169
Price Maintenance, and the Silver Market—C. F. Renners..... 217
What China Needs is Unrepresentative Government—H. H. Powers..... 219
The Two Dominant Figures in Filipino Politics—Frazier Hunt..... 220
"Few Filipinos Want America to Cut Loose From the Islands,"—Frazier Hunt..... 221
The Position of Modern Chinese Ranks in China—D. K. Lien..... 281
Relations Between Reformation and Drought in North China—H. K. Tong..... 284
The Nemesis of the Chinese Politician, Upton Close..... 287
The Chinese in Nickolaeff at Work, Earl Baker..... 287
Schools, More Schools—the Cry of the Filipinos—Frazier Hunt..... 295
The Port of Shanghai—E. C. Stocker..... 300
The Business Situation in China Today—Don D. Patterson..... 326
A National University at Nanking—H. K. Tong, 332
Consul Bids for Good Will of the Chinese People—Frederick W. Stevens..... 333
This American Family Knows What Bolshevism and Japanese in Siberia—Y. Y. Tzu..... 335
Social Service Viewpoint—C. F. Renners..... 338
The Chinese at Nickolaeff's—Jack Mason..... 338
Australia's Two Dominant Politicians—Frazier Hunt..... 341
The Post of Modern Chinese Banks in China..... 341
Imports and Chinese Industries—Don D. Patterson..... 387
Effect of Famine in North China Upon Railway Finance..... 389
A Bargaining Tariff and the Open Door—C. F. Renners..... 390
The Balance Upset Again—Upton Close..... 391
American Letter—Stanley B. Rhyne..... 391
The New China, and the Yellow Peril—Julian Arnold..... 394
Helping China to Help Herself—Thomas W. Lamont..... 395
America and Australia's Exclusion Policy—Frazier Hunt..... 398
The New Chinese-Russian Partnership in the Chinese Eastern—William H. Tong..... 399
How Shanghai is Governed—E. C. Pears..... 444
Silk! Silk! Silk!—Julian Arnold..... 445
Treaty Making Powers in the U. S.—John W. Davis..... 447

Volume XIV.
Volume XIV.

Who's Who in China

Chao Ching-hua, Director Shanghai-Nanking Rly... 20
Capitan Arturo, Woman's Second in Command... 22
Canton Airway Corp... 22
Wang Hsuan, Minister of Agriculture... 119
Hsiu Shih-chang, Vice-President of Communications... 226
Hsu Fu-ling, Minister of Justice, Canton... 306

Who's Who in China

Li Kung-ching, President, Wah Chong Trading Corp... 342
General Tan Yen-kai, Military Governor of Hunan... 400
Liang Ling-jiang, Superintendent of Customs... 402
Chang Ko-tung, New Minister to Cuba and Mexico... 459
Chang Chih-tam, Minister of the Interior... 518
Wen Shih-shin, Commissioner of Foreign Affairs... 578
P. C. King, President of Tsing Hua College... 579
Fan Yuan-chen, Minister of Education... 637
Chuan Liang, Director General of the Kinir Illy... 702

Women's Work

Mrs. C. S. Lobinger Attends Biennial Convention of Federation of Woman's Clubs... 36
First Female Lawyer Admitted to American Bar in China... 128
Education for Chinese Women—H. K. T... 176
Mrs. Chu Takes Position in New Bank... 228
Opening Meeting of American Woman's Club... 311
Mother's Department Organized for Woman's Club... 346
Sacrificed Bronzes... 402
American College Clubs in China... 468
Reproduction of French Modes in Chinese Silks on Wane... 524
The Chinese Women's Red Cross Society—H. K. T... 568
With American Woman's Clubs... 644
College Club May Affiliate With U. S. Collegiate Alumni... 716

General Topics

Current History Outline Begins with School Opening... 32
Italian Charged With Illegal Sale of Arms... 33
About Humphry—Dundie—By S. S. M... 33
Congressman Randall on the Far East... 34
Chinese—American Bank of Commerce, Tientsin... 74
Dr. Freeman of Philadelphia to Head Community Church... 76
Hon. C. D. Denby, Becomes Director of Gagents... 76
Williams and Wigmore... 76
General Chang Tso-lin to Build American Cotton Mill... 78
Attention! Dealers in Snakes, Monkeys and Other Wild Animals... 78
Kuo Ming Tang Holds Convention in Philadelphia... 138
Mr. Stevens, Consortium Representative, Sails in October... 140
Typhoon Damages Manila... 140
Dr. W. H. Plough's Lecture in Philippine Forum... 140
Chinese Labor Union in Manila Asks for Nine-Hour Day... 140
Dr. Hornbeck to Spend Several Months in China... 141
Chinese Opium Smuggler Deported from Manila... 141
Pacific Mail Makes Semi-Annual Report... 181
Advertising Club of China Has Novel Program... 182
The First Pastor of Community Church... 184
Government Railway Issuies Summary for 1919... 191
Hwai Hsia Industrial Bank Opens Shanghai Branch... 198
Trade Returns for Yangtze Ports Issued... 202
Who Wants to be a Traffic Cop in Shanghai... 192
Kingley on Japanese Problem... 232
Pan Pacific Union Gives Dinner... 234
History of New York Shipbuilding Corporation... 236
The Making of a Bolshevik... 238
Dr. Teuney Guest of University Club... 312
Tragedy of Death of Governor Li Shun... 348
America's Four Diplomatic Blunders in the Far East... 350
International Silk Exposition in February... 351
Japanese Release Four Chinese Gunboats at Makoliat... 357
Conditions Grow Worse in the North... 253
Shipping Bill America's Greatest Constructive Act... 404
International Consortium Affects Organization... 421
Famine Relief Work Progressing... 408
Railway Conferences Being Held... 408
Require Five Years to Bring Orient Dye Stocks to Perfect... 408
Newspaper Enterprise Association to Raise Million... For Famine... 476
Reads Lined With Dead in North Honan... 476
Chinese New Mission to Visit U. S. ... 526
Japan Using California Agitation to Cover Up... 528
A Reduction in the Price of Fords... 528
Park Union Bank Has New Shanghai House... 529
China's Hospitals and the Red Cross... 530
Volume XIV.

Books and Publications

China's Debt to America, By Daryl Klein. London: The Bodley Head. C.F.R. 1937. 120.

Royal Asiatic Society, By H. F. M. Greenwood. 1938. 322.

Volume XV.

Special Articles

The New American Administration and the Philippines—C. F. Remer

A Political Upheaval in China—John Dewey

China's Business Depression Continues—Don D. Patterson

American Letter—Stanley H. High

The Consortium and China's Famine—Jeremiah W. Jenks

American Red Cross Building Famine Relief Highways in Shantung—Hollington K. Tong

When the Consortium Is Up in the Air—H. K. T.

Demilitarization of Japanese China—W. S. A. Pott

The Chinese Eastern Railway Under New Management—Hollington K. Tong

Who is Democracy—Charles Summer Logie

The Success of the Chinese Dollar—C. F. Remer

The Sugar Industry of China—George H. Fishcll

The Chinese in Siberia—John Shyrok

Facts About the Latest Russian-Chinese Negotiations—Hollington K. Tong

When is the Commercial Revival Coming—Don D. Patterson

The American Letter—Stanley H. High

The Consortium and Mr. Stevens—J. W. Kingsnorth

Railway Finance and North China Famine—W. H. Donald

Thailand's Physiology—Upton Close

China's Action on Her Relations With Russia—J. W. Jenks

Give China a Square Deal—Philip Young

Consortium Prosperity—Mr. Stevens

Upton Close

International Cooperation in Famine Relief—China—H. K. T.

Who is the Present Chinese Political Situation?—H. K. T.

A Tale of Two Cities

Industrial China—John Dewey

China's Demand for American Loans—John Shyrok

China's Sugar Industry—Hollington K. Tong

China's Agriculture—Hollington K. Tong

Japan's Trade with the United States for 1938

Japan in Siberia—C. F. Remer
Volume XVI. Who's who in China

General Chang Chin-pui, Commander-in-chief of Troops Despatched to Mongolia ............. 14

Who's Who in China

Volume XVI. Volume XVI.

Who's who in China

Li Mau-chi, Councillor of Military Governor of Kwangtung .......... 14

Quo T'ai-chi, Representative of the Southern Government at Peking .......... 75

General Tang Tsu-lai, Chief of the Commission on Military Affairs of the League of Nations .......... 131

M.H. Shen, Chairman of the Commission on Railway Technology and Chief-Engineer of Tientsin-Pukow Railway .......... 187

Yuanwan Kuo, Member of the Law Codification Commission .......... 236

Dr. Hua Chien Mei, Chinese Attorney at Shanghai .......... 297

Dr. Li Ts'ung-mu, Associate Professor in Uniof Medical College .......... 354

Lin En-ko, Vice-Speaker of the Senate of the New Parliament .......... 407

Dr. F.T. Cheng, Member of the Law Codification Commission .......... 458

Chiang Yung, President of the Law Codification Committee .......... 514

Kuan Keng-ling, Counsellor of the Ministry of Communications .......... 558

Tung Kang, Minister of Justice .......... 625

Fartan T. Sung, Counsellors of Ministry of Finance .......... 684

Women's Work

Present Day Tendencies in American Education .......... 20

With the American Woman's Club .......... 22

A Standard Dress for School Children .......... 24

The Russian Children's Colony .......... 32

With the American Woman's Club .......... 234

A Suggested Problem for Chinese Girls Students in America .......... 202

Chinese Girls Study Christian Patriotism .......... 238

Mrs. Crane Interested in Education of Chinese Children .......... 299

Mrs. Wellington Koo Popular in London Society .......... 358

Dr. Mary Stone to Enlarge Berne Evening Training Home .......... 360

American Business Woman's Success in China .......... 408

With the American Woman's Club .......... 412

Y.W.C.A. Interested in International Silk Show .......... 462

English Woman Hopes to Aid Orient's Workers .......... 468

Women's Committee of Canton College Gives Reception in New York .......... 464

A Magazine for Chinese Women .......... 520

With the American Woman's Club .......... 522

American Woman's Aids for American Alumni .......... 578

Long Stay in Orient .......... 580

Another Chinese Woman's Magazine .......... 580

Chinese Shadow Dolls Additional Sources .......... 628

Design Material .......... 666

With the American Woman's Club .......... 690

Chinese Girls to be in Far Eastern Games .......... 692

Corner Stone of McCutcheon Dormitory to be Laid Saturday .......... 695

General Topics

Road Making Schemes .......... 25

Dr. Houghton Heads Peking Medical College .......... 26

Opening of Port of Woosung—Hon. Chang Chien's Address .......... 28

The American Wireless Loan Agreement

Roads Committee Report .......... 81

This is How the U.S. Government Stands .......... 85

Report Given on Incorporation Bill .......... 88

Peking Union Medical College Offers New Course .......... 130

The Blue Triangle in China .......... 138

China Scores at International Silk Show .......... 140

Foreign Trade Convention Announced .......... 140

American Red Cross in China .......... 140

Dr. Baille Addresses American University Club .......... 146

Speaks to Peking Teachers .......... 146

Shanghai Mint Loan Agreements .......... 150

Deering Appointed First Secretary of.. .......... 200

British Chamber of Commerce Holds Meeting .......... 214

Congressional Aid for American Children Abroad .......... 238

The Federal Incorporation Bill in the House .......... 259

Ministry of Communications Makes Statement Regarding Funds .......... 300

—University of Nanking Publishes Farmer's Bulletin .......... 303

Commercial Body in U.S. Recommends Anti-Narcotic Legislation .......... 304

Further Restriction on Drugs Advocated .......... 306

Volume XVI.

Spacial Articles

Colonization in Manchuria as a By Product of the Family of H.F. MacNair .......... 343

Asbestos Mining in China—Fartan T. Sung .......... 345

Important Railway Conferences at Hangchow—W.S.W. .......... 347

The American Letter—Stanley H. High .......... 352

Must the U.S. Fight Japan? .......... 357

Untangling China's Finances—H.K. Tong .......... 397

"Old China" and the U.S. Cabinet .......... 399

Economic Aspects in the Trade of Castor Oil—C.F. Remer .......... 401

The Far Eastern Medlock—John Dewey .......... 403

Chinese Chambers of Commerce .......... 404

New Political Developments Awaited—S.K. Stierin .......... 448

Mr. Lansing at Paris—C.F. Remer .......... 450

The American Attitude Toward Trade in Russia—Don D. Patterson .......... 452

The Labor Situation in China During 1920—Ta Chen .......... 453

Financing China—Emil Fischer .......... 456

—Fight for Woman Suffrage in China—Hollington K. Tong .......... 500

Mr. Lansing on the Shangtung Settlement—C.F. Remer .......... 502

An Inside Story of the Tientsin Conference—D. Kayes .......... 504

The Greatest obstacle in China's Industrial Development—D.K. Lien .......... 506

The International Agricultural Commission—J. Lossing Buck .......... 511

Should the Anglo-Japanese Alliance be Renewed?—H.G.W. Woodhead .......... 556

Practical Politics and the Anglo-Japanese Alliance—C.F.R. .......... 569

What Japan Has Gained from the Alliance—J.W. Kinsgworth .......... 561

The Anglo-Japanese Alliance—D.C. Boulger .......... 565

The Anglo-Japanese Alliance—O.M. Green .......... 565

Opinon in the North Western Provinces—Upton Close .......... 608

The Supreme Court in China—F.T. Cheng .......... 674

The Trade of China 1920—J.W.H. Ferguson .......... 674

China on the Way to Finding Herself—Yee K.Y., Yok ........... 676

Volume XVI.

Far Eastern Press Opinion

Federal Incorporation and China Trade .......... 15

Canard of America-Japan War .......... 16

The Question of Mongolian Autonomy .......... 18

Financial Reorganization .......... 18

China's Appeal to Americans .......... 75

Toward an Understanding With Japan .......... 78

Britain, Japan and America .......... 80

Japan Not Crowded .......... 132

Reciprocity Once More .......... 187

The Future of the Chinese Silk Trade .......... 232

The Future of the Chinese Parliament .......... 232

Double Crossed at Yap .......... 298

Gambling in Peking .......... 298

Allied War Costs Tabulated .......... 356

Complications in Mongolia .......... 358

Regional Understandings .......... 408

Undesirable Foreign Influences .......... 410

New Diplomacy Unidentified .......... 469

Yap and Prestige .......... 410

Strained Relations Between America and Japan .......... 459

The Fall of Ching-chih .......... 563

Count Soyeshima on the British Alliance .......... 668

Japanese Liberals in Shantung .......... 272

Britain's Alliances with Japan .......... 625

Japanese and Chinese Loans .......... 625

New Loan Developments .......... 626

The Aftermath of the Hunchun Affair .......... 692

Renewal of Anglo-Japanese Alliance .......... 692

MILLARD'S REVIEW
Volume XVI.

General Topics

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Manila Attorney Admitted to American Bar</td>
<td>362</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Important Chinese Corporation Launched</td>
<td>362</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seattle Business Men to Visit China</td>
<td>414</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Chinese Recorder for April 1921</td>
<td>416</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>To study Educational Work in China</td>
<td>418</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Development of Industries of the Shanghai Orphanage</td>
<td>418</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Suggestions Wanted for Famine Colonization in Manchuria</td>
<td>454</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social Reform in China</td>
<td>463</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Consortium Not a Monopoly</td>
<td>466</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American Law firms Form Association in Shanghai</td>
<td>584</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Seattle Mission Making Tour of Orient</td>
<td>584</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American School Recognized by Colleges</td>
<td>634</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Tenth Anniversary of Tsing Hua College, Peking</td>
<td>636</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Howard S. Moy Fosters Chinese Investments in America</td>
<td>639</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hoover Favors Dyer Bill and Wants it to be a Law</td>
<td>695</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Books and Publications

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Modern China, by Si Gung Cheng. Oxford University Press 1919...</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Hong List—1921 Shanghai City Directory...</td>
<td>M.C.P. 114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vital Forces in Current Events. Boston: Ginn and Company...</td>
<td>D.R. 170</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Modern Constitutional Development in China. by Harold M. Vinacke. Princeton University Press 221</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Buddhist Catechism. New York: Bretan's, 1920. 221</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Truth About China, a series of articles from the Peking and Tientsin Times.</td>
<td>C.F.R. 285</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The War, the World and Wilson, by George Creel. New York: Harper and Brothers</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Essentials in Art, by Dr. Oswald Siren. New York: John Lane and Company. 1921...</td>
<td>494</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Garden of Bright Waters, translated by Edward P. Mathers. Houghton, Mifflin and Company, Boston 1920...</td>
<td>550</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Report on the Hydrology of Hangchow Bay and the Chien T'ang Estuary, by the Whangpoo Conservancy Board. 1921...</td>
<td>605</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Chinese Recorder May 5, 1921... John A. Ely</td>
<td>662</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Educational Directory and Year Book of China 662</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Feast of the Lantern, by Louise J. Miln. New York: Frederick A. Stokes...</td>
<td>718</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>